

UnionBook

UnionBook is the new social networking website for trade unionists. If you are a union member, this site is for you.

Visit UnionBook today at <http://www.unionbook.org>

What you can do on UnionBook:

- Make friends with other trade unionists from around the world
- Join groups that interest you - or set up new ones
- Host your own blog
- Upload pictures, music and videos
- Chat live with other trade unionists
- Post status updates that automatically update your Twitter or Facebook pages

So how is UnionBook any different from Facebook?

We have no ads.

We respect your privacy.

UnionBook exists to help trade unionists organize, agitate and educate - not to make profit.

But what if I already have a Facebook account?

Keep using it. Facebook and UnionBook have different purposes.

I've joined, I love it - what now?

Promote it! Tell your fellow union members. Spread the word!
